Materials:

24 Swarovskis 4 mm jet (J)
32 Swarovskis 4 mm black diamond (BD) size 10 seed beads coloured grey-brown in the hole (R)
size 11 seed beads black (r)
3 Elements “Pierres serties” black 9 mm (14 mm from loop to loop)
1 button for the closure
about 60 inch of nylon thread

My bracelet is (including closure) about 6 1/4 inch

I bought the elements years ago – but I have seen them a short time ago in a catalogue from Venot (Paris). They still do exist.

There is an alternative at the end of these instructions with flat round beads.

One word of warning: the seed beads coloured inline are fading with time.

The full diagram:

Step by step:

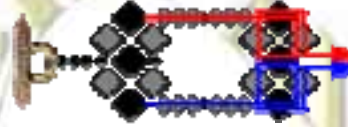

1. The middle of the thread is at the button. Take 4 r, 1 BD, 1 J, 1 BD, 1 J, go through the first BD and the next J.

2. The other end goes through 3 r and crosses in the fourth. Take 1 BD, 1 J, 1 BD, go through the second J of step 1, the first BD and the following J.

3. The upper thread goes again through the following BD, takes 1 r and goes through the Swarovskis including the J

4. Take 3 R, 1 r, 3 R, 1 J, 1 BD, 1 J, 1 BD, go through the first J and the BD. Do the same with the other thread, just go through the 2. J of the first thread instead of taking a new one.

5. The upper thread goes through the hole of the element and back through the BD. The other thread is doing the same.

6. Take 4 r, 1 R, 4 R, 1 BD, go through the second hole and back through the BD – do the same with the second thread.

7. Take 1 J, 1 BD, 1 J, go again through the BD of step 6 and the J. Do the same with the other thread, just go through the 2. J of the first thread instead of taking a new one.

8. Take 3 R, 1 r, 3 R, 1 J, 1 BD, 1 J, 1 BD, go again through the first J and the BD. Do the same with the other thread, just go through the 2. J of the first thread instead of taking a new one. Yes – we are at step 4 again ...

The closure loop:

Take 3 R, 1 r, 3 R, 1 J, 1 BD, 1 J, 1 BD and go again through the first J and the following BD. Take 3 r, 1 R, 2 r, 2 R, 1 r, 2 R, 2 r, 1 R, 2 r, cross through the 1. r of the loop (Adapt the number of beads to your button.). Follow the blue thread path for the second thread.

One thread goes through the Swarovskis and adds 1 r between the two BD. Make a knot – done!
